Rules and procedures

Setting up a seminar is very time consuming and expensive. These rules are necessary to make everything go as smoothly as possible and are all for good reasons. Please read them thoroughly. Also keep in mind that we are always looking for ways to say yes, not reasons to say no. If you have any questions, feel free to contact us: e-mail naimleobesiri@yahoo.com

1. By admission to the seminar, you are agreeing to these rules!

2. The seminar is an education event dedicated to Euro-Atlantic integration and dealing with a past of the region of Western Balkans.
3. Purpose of the seminar is to promote education, friendship, respect and cooperation between youth.
4. Twenty students from former YU countries will be accepted for this event.
5. Once you have been accepted to the seminar you will be asked to confirm your presence in 48hrs, if you do not confirm you will be replaced with the first one on the „reserve list“.
6. Five males and five females will be on „reserve list“ if someone from the accepted 20's should be replaced.
7. We must be notified at least 76 hours before the seminar starts if someone that confirmed presence is not able to be on the seminar. No exceptions.
8. Three people will evaluate your application form: Mr Naim Leo Besiri, Executive director of YEC and Mr Ivan Grahek and Mr Aleksandar Zlatić from Human Rights Department.
9. The seminar schedule provided by organizers is obligatory for every participant.
10. In order for the seminar to start on time, please be 10 minutes before the start time of any event.
11. Organisation reserves right to change the seminar agenda due unpredictable circumstances.
12. The seminar is an exclusive event for invited participants only.
13. All invited participants are awarded with scholarship that will cover only seminar costs (accommodation, food, refreshments, travel by bus or train, seminar materials).
14. During the seminar participants shall show openness, good will and respect for the organisation, speakers and fellow practitioners. Also, they shall strive to unite engagement with mindfulness, and care for the development and health of themselves and others.
15. While in the seminar participants shall obey organisations' instructions and guidelines.
16. Participants must immediately inform seminar's staff (teachers and organizers) and partners in the seminar about injuries or any issues concerning safety of participants.
17. Participants shall report any conflicts or misunderstandings to the organisers and accept the given solutions with good will and patience.
18. Everyone upholds common harmony, comfort, tidiness and order.
19. Everyone shall observe seminar and hotel internal regulations as well as the organizers' guidelines.
20. If any object is damaged by participant he or she shall be liable to pay damage.
21. Organisation is not responsible for lost or stolen items.
22. Everything concerning personal insurance matters connected with participation in the seminar must be arranged by the participants themselves and on their own.
23. Participants agree to further eventual use - for educational purposes and promotion benefits - photos and recordings, taken during seminar.
24. Disrespect to the Rules and Procedures or disobedience to decisions of organizers is understood as a resignation of the participation in the seminar.
25. If any of participants resign from the seminar before July 8th 1400hrs he or she will be asked to return full scholarship according to bulls, up to 500 euro's.
26. You will be required to sign this document at the seminar. If you have any questions e-mail us before the event.
27. Have fun, learn, make friends and be safe!
- 28. By admission to the seminar, you are agreeing to these rules!
